Reflective Essay #2
Your Identity as a Technical Communicator
ENG 673

Description
Coming upon the end of this course, reflect upon your identity as a technical communicator by considering the following questions:

- Now that you understand the discipline and the field (more than you did previously), what is your place within it?
- As a technical communication professional, what do you do and what are your areas of specialization?
- As a student pursuing graduate-level study in technical communication, which subjects or issues are of interest to you and how do you prefer to investigate those subjects?
- As both a graduate student and a professional, which organizations and journals provide a good fit?

Due date
- By end of day on Tuesday, November 20
- Submit via e-mail to gretchen.haas@mnsu.edu
- Include “ENG 673 <your first name> <your last name> Reflective Essay 2” in the subject line

Evaluative Criteria and Standards

Your essay will merit an A if you do the following:
- You articulate your identity as a professional and as a student.
- You reference material we have addressed in class (articles, journals, subjects, methods, theories)

Your essay will merit a B if you do the following:
- You articulate your identity as a professional or as a student.
- You reference a minimum of material we have addressed in class.

Your essay will merit a C if you do the following:
- You do not articulate your identity as a professional or as a student.
- You do not reference material we have addressed in class.